

Target Audience

Managers across a range of Housing, Health and Social Care settings who have a responsibility for ensuring the competence and practice of team members and the service are providing excellent Dementia care.

This course has been developed to support learners to plan for changes that may be required for dementia care practice within the team and changes that may be required to the environment.

This course is delivered using a range of methods and resources including:

- ◆ Live tutor facilitation, videos and scenarios for group work, interactive polls, questioning and participation and end of session assessment.

This course has been developed and mapped to current occupational standards, qualification frameworks and the following documents and resources:

- ◆ Dementia Core Skills: Education and Training Framework
- ◆ DOH – Dementia Training Standards Framework in health and social care settings

Course Content

- ◆ Assessing training needs
- ◆ Implementing learning outcomes
- ◆ Dementia identification, assessment and diagnosis
- ◆ Person centered approach to advance planning
- ◆ Life story work
- ◆ Adapting the physical environment to meet changing needs
- ◆ Health and wellbeing in dementia care
- ◆ Living well with dementia and promoting independence

Learning Outcomes

After attending this course, learners will be able to:

- ◆ Describe how to assess training needs of a team
- ◆ Give an example of how measure the implementation of learning outcomes
- ◆ Give an overview of how to identify that an assessment and diagnosis may be required
- ◆ Describe what person-centered approach to advance planning is
- ◆ Give an overview of how to complete Life Story Work
- ◆ Give an example of how to adapt the physical environment to meet changing needs
- ◆ State what is should be included to ensure excellent health and wellbeing in dementia care
- ◆ Describe what it means to live well with dementia and promote independence

Duration: 6 Hours